UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

This kit contains the following items:

1. Public Law 767 - 83d Congress. (Section 4(a) adds a new Title XV to the Social Security Act "Unemployment Compensation for Federal Employees.")
2. Regulations to Implement Title XV of the Social Security Act, as Amended (Responsibilities of Federal Agencies).
3. PROCEDURES - Responsibilities of Federal Agencies under Title XV of the Social Security Act - Unemployment Compensation for Federal Employees.
4. Employee Pamphlet "Federal Civilian Employees! Your Unemployment Compensation."

ACTIONS BY EACH FEDERAL AGENCY

1. Obtain and Distribute Notice to Separated Federal Employee SF No. 8

This form should be requisitioned immediately from the GSA in sufficient quantities to provide for distribution to all employees who are separated, or placed on nonpay status for an extended period, on or after January 1, 1955. (See kit item 3, paragraph 7 and Exhibit A.)

2. Distribute the Employee Information Pamphlet

Sufficient copies of this pamphlet (see kit item 4) for distribution to all current employees have been sent to you by the Government Printing Office without requisition on your part and at no cost to your agency.

3. Make Determinations Relative to Coverage

It is essential that each Federal department and agency immediately initiate a review of its entire organization to determine which employees are covered under this new law. (See kit item 3, paragraph 2.)

4. Develop Instructions and Issue Them Through Agency Manual or Instructional System

Each Federal department or agency should adapt the instructions in "PROCEDURES" (see kit item 3) to its own procedural format and issue instructions to the operating offices involved sufficiently in advance of January 1 to ensure adequate preparation and training of their personnel who must process State requests for wage and separation information, Forms ES-931. These instructions should include information concerning the determinations made pursuant to paragraph 3 above. Copies of all instructions or informational materials prepared by each agency should be immediately forwarded to the Bureau of Employment Security, U. S. Department of Labor, reference UCFE.
